Abstract Competition Deadline is Friday, August 30!

The Texas Chapter of the American College of Cardiology (TCACC) invites current cardiology fellows, residents, and CV Team Members to submit abstracts for the 8th Annual Abstract Competition during the TCACC Annual Meeting taking place October 19-20, 2024.

Application Deadline: Friday, August 30, 2024 by 11:45pm CST

Who can submit an abstract?

1. Fellows in a cardiology training program
2. Residents in internal medicine, pediatrics, or combined training programs
3. CV Team members (RN, NP, CNS, PA, PharmD)

If you do not meet these requirements but have research or a case you would like to submit, you can become eligible by working with someone who is eligible and having them present at TCACC.

Abstract Guidelines:

1. Abstracts (one per person) must be less than 350 words (single spaced) and include: Title/Author(s), Introduction, Methods, Results, and Conclusions.
2. Clinical research and case reports are both acceptable.
3. Submissions are only accepted via the link below. Mailed, e-mailed or faxed submissions will not be considered.
4. Data and information presented previously at a local or national meeting is acceptable.
5. There is no fee to submit. However, abstract presenters must register for the Annual Meeting.

Submission Instructions:

TCACC Members should be able to login using their email address on file with ACC and TCACC and their previous password. After you log in you will want to create a new password. (you will have the ability to reset your password when you login if you have misplaced it)
